

SUMMON GUARDIAN ANGELS...

... to attract a Sagittarius man

ABOUT GUARDIAN ANGELS

The belief in Guardian Angels can be traced back to the 5th Century and even earlier. Guardian Angels protected and assisted individuals, groups of people and even entire countries. References to Guardian Angels can be found in Rabbinic, Judaic, Islamic, Zoroastrianist and Christian literature. In Christian documents, Guardian Angels are prevalent in the Catholic, Anglican, Lutheran, Methodist and Eastern Orthodox traditions.

In modern culture, the notion that 'someone is watching over us' is commonplace, particularly when someone has had a close encounter with misfortune and lived to tell the tale.

There are many different types of Guardian Angels spread out across many, many cultures. The Guardian Angels we'll be calling upon are those that represent love and matters of the heart and those that represent the zodiac sign of the particular man you're seeking to attract.

That's right, there's even a Guardian Angel for the Sagittarius man!

YOUR GUARDIAN ANGELS

Michael gives us protection and guidance, and ensures we are in happy and healthy relationships.

Jophiel fills us and surrounds us with beauty, making us beautiful on the inside and the outside.

Chamuel guides our eyes when we are looking for anything, in particular romance and companionship.

Raphael heals our broken hearts and ensures we are ready to find love once more.

Raguel brings harmony and ensures all communication between ourselves and others is calm and clear.

Hadraniel shares the unconditional love of God. He enables you to love yourself, so that you may, in turn, be loved by others.

Adnachiel is the angel of Sagittarius. We will be appealing to the Guardian Angel of your Sagittarius man to help you bring your love to him and so, in turn, bring his love to you.

HOW TO PREPARE YOURSELF

Summoning Guardian Angels is not a simple process. In fact, it can take a number of days just to carry out the preparation.

Why? Because before you can summon a Guardian Angel it is imperative that you have done a good deed. You can't simply donate a small sum of money to charity. The deed has to be fully appreciated at the time in order that it is 'connected' to you. But don't worry, it's not hard to do a good deed. Here are some examples:

- Help someone complete a task at work
- Give someone who is lost directions
- Give up your seat on the bus or train
- Offer to run an errand for someone
- Spend some time talking to someone who is lonely
- Volunteer at soup kitchen or charity store
- Listen (really listen) to someone's problems
- Bake cookies and share them round at work
- Sincerely compliment a friend or colleague

With your good deed done, take a long hot soak. Once you're dried and dressed in something loose and comfortable, light a new (never before lit), white candle.

SUMMON YOUR ANGELS

Repeat the following, three times:

*My angels are before me and around me,
Guarding me wherever I go.
My good deeds are done
And I call upon your grace and kindness.*

*I call upon Michael, Jophiel, Chamuel,
Raphael, Hadramiel and, finally,
Adnachiel, the Guardian Angel of the
Sagittarius man, to bring his love to me,
that I may, in turn, bring him love,
fulfilment and lasting happiness.*

WHAT IF IT DOESN'T WORK?

You can attempt to contact your Guardian Angels as often as you like. If nothing appears to be happening, you could try the following:

Whilst repeating the verses, visualize the man whose affections you are hoping to secure. See yourself with him, walking along a tree-lined boulevard, pink and magenta blossoms falling around you, bright sunlight streaming down through the leafy canopy. Visualize angels circling above you as you repeat the verses. The form these angels take is entirely up to you. You might visualize chubby-cheeked cherubs, cupid-like, with their little bows and arrows. You might visualize something like a winged saint, white-gowned, haloed and exuding kindness and patience. Or you might visualize something entirely abstract: bright lights and complex kaleidoscopic designs. (P.S. We've included a FREE angel visualization gallery with this product!)

Focus on the act of charity you carried out prior and think about how good you will be for the man in question. Don't forget, it's also his Guardian Angel we're hoping to influence!

Remember, your Guardian Angels will always have your best interests at heart!
